Highlights of Qualifications

My one year of studying experience as a student (majored in front end developing) has honed my CSS3 and HTML5 skills, as well as my knowledge of responsive design and project management. I have the skills to create the perfect HTML, which makes it easy to find and fix any problems that arise later. Three years of experience in student council, getting involved in my school and faculty events with most students. Experience in entrepreneurial business and social media management when I create my own business.
